

St. Peter's Episcopal Church

presents

“My Two and a Half Years Behind Barbed Wire During WW II in the United States”

with

Yukio Shimomura

Yukio Shimomura will share his family's experience during the 40s when WWII started; how Executive Order 9066 affected family; leaving San Francisco and entering the incarceration camps in San Bruno, Tanforan Race Track and in Topaz, Utah; what his parents, his older brothers, and Yukio went through; the lifestyle and dynamics in the camp; the significant ironies; how the family left the camp and where they settled.

110,000 people incarcerated, 110,000 stories — this is a snapshot of one family. The presentation, with about 60+ slides, lasts about 1 1/2 hours with Q & A's after.

Mr. Shimomura currently lives in Morgan Hill and has given presentations to many groups.

Friday, February 9, 2024, 7 p.m.

178 Clinton St., Redwood City

Open to the Public (no charge)

More information? call: 650-464-4033, email: ddr@astound.net
or website: stpetersrwc.org